Vice Admiral Rufus L. Taylor, USN
Deputy Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Rufe

Reference is your request for informal indication as to what General Holloway would be most interested in during his visit on Friday, 12 January. I have discussed this with him, and the following are our suggestions for briefing topics:

- a. A general orientation on the CIA organization, mission, and major activities in both collection and analysis.
- b. Activities of the CIA Operations Center.
- c. CIA operations involving the use of aircraft, with particular indication as to those activities in which personnel on assignment from the USAF are participating.
- d. CIA's role in the coordination of military intelligence collection, especially as this relates to HUMINT activities of the USAF, both in the United States and overseas. CIA's role in the program relating to  would be a case in point.
- e. CIA's activities in the exploitation of scientific and technical intelligence, including indication as to how this relates to S&T activities of service agencies such as those of the Foreign Technology Division of the Air Force Systems Command.
- f. A general assessment of CIA's collection capabilities worldwide.

General Holloway and I will arrive at 1230 hours on Friday for luncheon with you, as per your invitation. I understand that arrangements for his USAF review(s) completed.
